For Savvy Men & Women with Helen Perry

Do you stress over making introductions or writing thank-you notes? What's the difference between American and Continental style dining?

Helen Perry, a leading consultant in personal presentation and etiquette, has been instructing young people in her "Eticool School" at Bering's for the past decade. After multiple requests, Bering's is delighted to announce that Helen is now teaching adults in her unique, fun style, right here in our Bissonnet store.

Join our class to learn how to polish your manners and bring you're A-game to your next business event or special occasion.

At Helen's etiquette class, you will learn:

- Impression Management
- Introduction Courtesies
- Gift Presentation/Acknowledgement
- Dining Manners
- The Art of Letter Writing

This 75-minute lunchtime session is only $99 and includes a box of stationery from Bering's and a beverage. You are welcome to bring your own lunch or snack.

Cancellations within 48 hours of class constitute forfeiture of 50% of tuition.
